Western Libraries in brief

Our job is to remove barriers for you and your students. We team up to offer services customized to your exact teaching situation.

- At this time, Western Libraries is closed to public
- Services are available online
- Due dates: have been changed to June 15
- For More information: https://library.wwu.edu/about/coronavirus
Circulation Services

- FAQ
- Physical loans suspended until Library reopens (TBD)
- Electronic items still available
- Course Reserves is still available. Submit request with this form
We continue to offer all our services equivalently online.

If you want customized online support for your class or for specific students, we can make it happen!

You can:

• Drop in video/voice chat with us using Zoom during open hours.
• text chat with us during open hours.
• Email us at rws@wwu.edu.
• Check current hours and access more at library.wwu.edu/rws
Tutoring Center

The Tutoring Center has adopted an online model to give students access to tutors from a distance.

Study Skills Appointments and Booklets are also online!

To ask more about these options or the TC's implementation of online tutoring, you can:

• Phone 360-650-3855
• Email the Tutoring Center Front Desk
• Chat with the TC
LIT & Online Resources

Our online resources can be embedded directly into your course.

LIT (Library Information Tutorials)
- Research, reading, and writing skills organized in modular lessons.
- Use the LIT Toolkit to decide how LIT might fit into your course

Online videos & interactive resources
- Even more core skills in an engaging and at times very humorous format.
OER Teaching Materials
